

There are two creatures simulated by this project. On the left is a frog which is swimming. There are totally 15 points and 17 springs contained in this creature. On the right is a moth that is flying, which has 9 points and 10 springs. You can press “s” for a single step of locomotion for both creatures.